

Professional Sectors

Visual Arts	Dance	Theatre
Artists, arts practitioners or designers/makers working in areas such as:	Ballet	Musical
	Culturally specific or world dance (i.e. Non-western, such as Bollywood)	Playwriters and narrative drama (Excl: film/TV)
Sculpture and installations		Physical & mime
Drawing, painting or printmaking	Contemporary dance	Experimental
Artist-led animation (excluding work primarily intended for Film or TV, commercial games or mass-market media distribution)	Aerial dance	Comedy
	Street dance	Variety & Cabaret
	Jazz and tap	Puppetry and visual theatre
Illustration (such as concept art, comic art, picture books, zines and other narrative or sequential illustration, but does not include areas such as technical, scientific, medical or fashion design and illustration)	Folk dance (traditional) (Morris or clog dancing for example)	Pantomime
	Social dance (Ceilidhs, barn dance, tea dance, line dancing, salsa, jive, Lindy Hop, ballroom)	Circus
Live and performance art	Choreography	Production
Mixed media art, digital or computer-generated art	Teaching	Dramaturgy
	Production,	Stage Management
Graphic design (excluding using graphic design, motion design or technical illustration for commercial/branding or product design)	Directing	Literature
	Curating	Poetry (in print, digital or live)
	Music Musicians, performers and practitioners working in areas such as:	Prose fiction (in print, digital or live)
		Graphic novels and comics
Ceramics, pottery or crafts (such as woodworking or turning, silversmiths or metalwork, jewellery, glasswork or textiles)		Children and young people
	Classical and orchestral music	Storytelling translation
	Brass or silver bands	Publishing (prose, fiction or poetry)

Photography (excluding documentary photography, such as work exclusively intended for features in newspapers and magazines - e.g. fashion, music or journalistic)	Baroque, chamber and early music	Writers who use an innovative and creative approach to non-fiction that demonstrates strong literary merit: Memoirs, Travelogues Biographies
	Opera
	Marching or concert bands
Artists film and moving image (excluding for Film or TV) Sound art (including site-specific installations or sound installations, 'audioscapes', sound walks and sound mapping and performance art, or noise or sonic art)	Contemporary music (such as pop, rock, soul, country, funk, hip-hop, R&B, urban, blues, electronic and singer-songwriters)	Journalism, general arts writing or academic writing about the arts or writing for lifestyle magazines – IS NOT SUPPORTED
We can also consider applications from people working in areas such as curating, production or directing.	Combined Arts
	Carnival arts	Multi-disciplinary arts
	Festivals/large-scale outdoor events and spectacles	Production,
		Curating
Interdisciplinary arts	Directing	